Workshops on Loss and Bereavement 2019
2019 Workshops on Loss and Bereavement

Aim
This is a series of introductory workshops on a range of topics covering loss and bereavement.

Target Audience
The workshops are targeted at professionals and volunteers who may wish to learn more about loss and bereavement and for those working with people who have experienced a major loss.

These workshops are framed relative to the HSE palliative care competence framework at level two – for people whose work increasingly sees them engaging with people facing loss, bereavement and death. Specifically the competence dimension for grief and loss; and the competence dimension for communication are of relevance to workshop content and learning outcomes.

The framework is available here https://www.hse.ie/eng/about/Who/clinical/natclinprog/palliativecareprogramme/Resources/competencyframework.pdf

Accreditation
Professional accreditation is under application from The Irish Association of Social Workers and the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland. If you have other accreditation needs please contact us. A certificate of participation/attendance at the workshops is available on request.

Location
The workshops will be held in the Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Time and Duration
Workshops will commence at 9.15am and conclude at 4.15pm. Registration will commence at 9.00am

Workshop 1

OVERVIEW OF LOSS AND BEREAVEMENT

Date     Time    Presenter
Thursday, 31st January 2019  9.15am – 4.15pm   Brid Carroll

Description
This workshop explores the journey of grief and loss for individuals who have experienced loss in various ways not just through death. It will illustrate ways that can enhance coping for the bereaved individual and help them process their grief. The workshop will help participants to understand the normal reactions to grief and loss and explore how reactions can be more complex and require greater interventions. Contemporary theories and models of grief and loss will be explored. The workshop will be experiential in nature and suitable for both professionals and those working with people who have experienced loss and bereavement.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• gain enhanced skills and knowledge of grief and loss in various situations;
• allow for reflection on the impact of loss in one’s life through the experiential element;
• have a greater understanding of the working models of grief, thus providing frameworks for the experience;
• through discussion will allow for an enriched experience of this difficult area in a safe setting;
• apply the learning to various losses in our present changing times.

Presenter Profile
Brid Carroll Coming from an educational background Brid is a qualified Psychotherapist and Counselling Supervisor with a special interest in bereavement and loss. UNDERSTANDING SUICIDE AND SUPPORTING THE SUICIDE BEREAVED

Date     Time    Presenter
Friday, 22nd February 2019   9.15am – 4.15pm   Bernie Carroll

Description
Caring for and supporting someone who has lost a loved one to suicide can be challenging. Many feel unable to provide adequate support and struggle to understand the depth of grief. Some have difficulty in knowing what to say or do and feel uncomfortable and concerned about saying the wrong thing.

This workshop aims to provide an understanding of the causes of suicide and how to support someone who is experiencing suicidal thoughts. It will help participants to understand the grieving process and explore common grief reactions following a death by suicide. It will explore ways to provide adequate support and present practical strategies in responding to the bereaved.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• have an increased awareness of suicide;
• understand the contributing factors to suicide and learn how to support someone in suicidal crisis;
• understand the grieving process and how to support the suicide bereaved;
• be familiar with resources and supports available to the bereaved;
• be aware of the impact of personal loss and the importance of self-care.

Presenter Profile
Bernie Carroll has a BSc in Nursing Studies from the University of Limerick and a Masters in Suicide Studies from St. Patrick’s College, Drumcondra. Bernie joined the HSE, Mid-West, Suicide Resource Office in 2001 and became the Resource Officer for Suicide Prevention in 2003 with responsibility for implementing the actions, outlined in the National Suicide Prevention Strategy. Bernie joined the National Office for Suicide Prevention in 2014. She has a particular interest in education and training and has delivered suicide prevention, intervention and postvention training programmes, in a variety of settings. Bernie currently works as an educator in the HSE Social Care Directorate.

Venue

DEMENTIA AND LOSS

Date
Thursday, 28th March 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Breffni McGuinness

Description
This workshop will explore the unique losses and grief associated with dementia and what can help both the person with the diagnosis, and their carers to cope. It will look at the different types of losses e.g. ambiguous, anticipatory and disenfranchised, that are common with dementia. The impact of each on the person with the diagnosis, their carers and the wider family will be examined, along with various supports and approaches that can help people to cope with these challenging losses.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• understand the unique losses and consequent grief associated with dementia;
• understand how the various losses can impact on both the person with a diagnosis of dementia, their carers and the wider family;
• learn about practical approaches and supports that can help people to cope with the different types of losses associated with dementia;
• understand the importance of self-care when working with or supporting someone with dementia.

Presenter Profile
Breffni McGuinness is the Training Manager with The Irish Hospice Foundation (Bereavement). His special interests are in workplace bereavement, hidden losses and the use of creativity in working with people who are grieving. He has published a number of articles on bereavement and has developed resources for workplaces on bereavement policies and supporting staff who are bereaved. He is a Dramatherapist and member of the Irish Association of Creative Arts Therapists (IACAT).

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Workshop 9

ILLNESS AND LOSS: LIVING WITH THE SEEN AND UNSEEN

Date     Time    Presenters
Friday, 29th March 2019   9.15am – 4.15pm  Louise O’Driscoll

Description
Illness in all its forms can bring with it huge consequences for how we experience ourselves and our world. This workshop will consider the losses, hidden and otherwise, that can arise when illness comes into our lives. Psychological resilience in the face of illness will be explored along with the understanding of how turning towards, rather than away from, our suffering can give rise to personal growth and deepening wisdom. Special consideration will be given to the impact of a cancer diagnosis on psychological wellbeing.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• understand the unique losses associated with illness;
• develop their awareness of how losses may manifest as psychological distress and the factors associated with vulnerability and resilience;
• learn about psychological resilience in the face of illness and how to support it;
• recognise the impact of illness related loss on caregivers, staff, and services.

Presenter Profile
Louise O’Driscoll is a Senior Clinical Psychologist in St. Vincent’s University Hospital. As a member of the psycho-oncology service Louise works with in-patients and outpatients whose lives are affected by cancer risk or diagnosis. Louise has a special interest in the application of compassion and body oriented therapeutic approaches in health care and working collaboratively with clients to help bring about well-being in the face of illness. She has completed advanced training in Compassion Focused Therapy and Mindfulness Based Cognitive Therapy and is currently training as a Somatic Experiencing Practitioner. Louise collaborates on several ongoing funded research projects and has presented research both nationally and internationally. She is a member of St. Vincent’s University Hospital Medical Research and Ethics Committee and the Irish Psycho-social Oncology Network and also teaches at a number of graduate and postgraduate training programmes.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
Workshop 10

SUPPORTING ADOLESCENTS THROUGH GRIEF AND LOSS

Date
Thursday, 4th April 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenters
Brid Carroll

Description
Bereavement and loss in the life of an adolescent is seen as off time and demands the reorganisation of their assumptive world and how they view themselves, others and life. It evokes grief responses which can be intense. The most frequent deaths adolescents experience are those of parents, siblings or peers. The responses to their loss will depend on their age, the nature of the death, their relationship with the deceased, their personalities, how the family grieves and the changes the death creates in the family. This workshop will examine the factors that influence an adolescent while grieving, explore the impact of various types of loss on the adolescent, discuss the various styles of intervention that might help engage the bereaved adolescent in processing their loss and examine programmes that might be used with bereaved adolescents. The workshop will combine theory with experiential work and will allow for discussion of the difficulties which arise while engaging adolescents with their grief.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
- increase their knowledge of bereaved adolescents and how they function;
- expand the toolkit for professionals who work with this age group;
- allow for the examination of social change and its impact on bereaved adolescents.

Presenter Profile
Brid Carroll Coming from an educational background Brid is a qualified Psychotherapist and Counselling Supervisor with a special interest in bereavement and loss. She holds a Masters in Bereavement Studies from RCSI Dublin and a Postgraduate Certificate in Childhood Bereavement from St. Christopher’s Hospice London. Workshop 12

WORKING WITH PEOPLE FACING DEATH –
the journey through anticipatory grief and preparation for end of life care experienced by people who are dying and their families

Date
Thursday, 11th and Friday, 12th April 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Ann Keating
Eileen Scott

Description
How do you talk to someone who is dying? How do we know when someone is anticipating their death and needing to talk with someone? What informs our practice and ensures best practice? Many would argue that the grief process starts before death. If this is true then what are the implications for the individual, their family or friends and professionals of considering grief through the course of an illness? This workshop will reflect on and analyze how we can help people facing death to carefully explore their emotional wellbeing. It will examine whether preparation for and warning of a death can play a positive role in later grieving. We will look at the demanding, often challenging and conflicting issues that arise for people who are ill and what we might do or say to support them. The needs of adults and children will be covered. The format will include presentation, a review of related literature, group discussions and it will be experiential and interactive throughout. It is advisable that those experiencing a recent loss or close bereavement should not attend this workshop.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• understand the complexities of talking to someone who is dying;
• be aware of current theory and literature around this area;
• reflect on their own experience and clients’ experience of facing death;
• confidently begin to communicate with a person who is facing death in a safe and respectful manner;
• identify and begin to develop the use of different creative tools that might assist them in their own learning and in their direct work with clients;
• be informed of current HSE practice and Hospice Friendly Hospitals recommendations.

Presenter Profile
Ann Keating has been a Medical Social Worker for 30 years with a particular interest in end of life care, loss and bereavement. She holds a Masters in Social Work during which she prepared a research dissertation Bereavement: A paradigm shift. She has over 23 years’ experience working in Hospice settings. She currently works part-time as a lecturer in end of life care and bereavement and loss. Ann is a trained supervisor to Medical Social Workers who work in health settings; intellectual disability and end of life care.

Eileen Scott is a Social Worker working in palliative care for 14 years. She has a degree in Social Science and a Post Graduate Diploma in Psychosocial Palliative Care.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€190 (2-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.

Friday, 10th May 2019  9.15am – 4.15pm   Dr Susan Delaney

Description
Prolonged Grief disorder (PGD) is a largely misunderstood disorder which effects up to 10% of bereaved people. It is characterised by serious impairment in functioning and an inability to engage satisfactorily with everyday life. CG does not respond well to traditional therapy methods and new protocols are being developed to treat it.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• be familiar with different grief trajectories;
• understand why grief becomes stuck;
• learn simple strategies to facilitate grief integration;

Presenter Profile
Dr Susan Delaney, Clinical Psychologist and mindfulness teacher, is the bereavement services consultant in the Irish Hospice Foundation. Susan runs the Complicated Grief Programme in IHF and teaches the Bereavement Counselling module on the MSc in Bereavement studies.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
Workshop 14

LOSS AND BEREAVEMENT IN PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES

Date
Friday, 17th May 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Dr John McEvoy

Description
This workshop explores the impact of loss and the bereavement experiences of people with intellectual disability. Among the topics discussed are conceptual understanding of death; emotional knowledge and recognition skills; grief reactions of people with intellectual disabilities; and guidelines for intervention and support.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:

• discuss the developmental, familial and cultural issues associated with loss, bereavement and grief and individuals with intellectual disabilities;
• outline what constitutes ‘best practice’ in supporting people with intellectual disabilities experiencing loss and bereavement;
• develop a range of different practical interventions in supporting people with intellectual disabilities in coping with and adjusting to loss.

Presenter Profile
Dr John McEvoy is Principal Clinical Psychologist with the Prosper Group – an organisation providing services for men and women with intellectual disabilities throughout north County Dublin and County Meath. He has been working and conducting research with people with intellectual disabilities both in Ireland and the UK for over thirty years. Workshop 15

FOSTER CARE AND LOSS

Date
Thursday, 23rd May 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Peter O'Toole

Description
This workshop will explore the unique losses and grief associated with foster care. An overview of foster care in Ireland will be delivered, alongside a review of current challenges within the system. The relationship between attachment and loss will be explored, with the perspectives of both children in care and the foster carers who care for them being considered. The various situations and challenges that foster carers, as well as their own children, experience in their roles will be explored in the context of ambiguous grief and disenfranchised loss. An exploration of the various supports available will be presented and discussion encouraged on potential solutions for improvements and development of such.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:

• understand the unique and specific aspects of change, grief and loss in the context of foster care (children in care);
• understand change, grief and loss as often experienced by foster carers in their unique roles;
• consider the impact of losses inherent to foster care and how they impact on the children of foster carers;
• consider how foster carers can care for themselves following losses;
• consider how further understanding and considerations of the challenges related to loss and grief in fostering can assist in improving the quality of foster care in Ireland.

Presenter Profile
Peter O'Toole is Head of Support Service with the Irish Foster Care Association. He recently oversaw the development of the “Moving Forward” programme on loss for the organization. Peter is a qualified counsellor and registered psychologist with the Psychological Society of Ireland. He has also worked directly with children in care in a residential setting, facilitating their placements as well as liaising with their families of origin plus their respective social workers and allocated professionals. He has completed the IHF certificate in Children & Loss and facilitated Children’s Bereavement groups with Rainbows Ireland. Peter has worked on a voluntary basis for numerous organisations, both in Ireland and abroad, most notably in an orphanage for children with special needs and in palliative care in Eastern Europe.

Workshop 16

MANAGING LOSS IN ADOPTION, LIVING LIFE WELL

Date
Friday, 24th May 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Frances Jones

Description
While acknowledging the love, caring, sense of belonging and security that adoption provides for many families, this workshop identifies and explores the impact of adoption losses. It highlights what can happen when these losses are denied or hidden. It outlines the seven core issues in adoption and the main theories relating to adoption and loss. It explores the strategies and practices that can help those involved manage their losses and live life well.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• identify the main attitudes, values and beliefs that shape our evolving adoption laws and practice;
• identify adoption losses and the impact of the seven core issues which underlie adoption for all parties involved;
• highlight traditional and contemporary theories that help promote resilience, well-being and happiness;
• identify the services and supports available to those affected by adoption losses.

Presenter Profile
Frances Jones has vast experience of adoption and loss having worked extensively in adoption, child care and oncology services as a Social Worker for a number of years, six at senior level. She has a Masters in Adoption and a Counselling Dip from Cork Counselling Centre where her qualifying thesis explored “Life, Loves and Losses”. She maintained a private counselling practice as an accredited member of the Irish Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy and now presents workshops on aspects of adoption, loss and bereavement, communication, volunteering, support, supervision and self-care for various academic and voluntary bodies.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
Workshop 17

DEATH AT THE TIME OF BIRTH – SUPPORTING PARENTS THROUGH THE JOURNEY OF PERINATAL LOSS

Date
Thursday, 6th June 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Brid Shine

Description
Childbirth is a significant developmental milestone in the lives of parents, an experience that is usually filled with hope, joy and anticipation. The nature of perinatal loss is that it is often sudden and unexpected, resulting in profound shock and sadness for families. This workshop will explore the wide range of loss experiences, and the evidence based bereavement care practices that support parents throughout the journey of perinatal loss. The focus will be on how to care compassionately for bereaved parents and their grieving families. The different levels of bereavement support, both in the hospital and community setting will be outlined. Self-care tools for staff who care for bereaved families will be introduced through mindfulness and self-compassion practices.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• understand the impact of perinatal loss on the lives of parents, siblings and wider family;
• understand the varied grief responses and grieving styles associated with perinatal loss;
• understand how to care compassionately for families in the circumstances of perinatal palliative care and bereavement;
• understand how bereavement care practices have been influenced by contemporary grief theory, and how to link theory to practice;
• understand the different levels of bereavement support provided by the hospital and community;
• understand the impact on healthcare staff and learn tools to prevent, recognise or respond to stress, empathy fatigue and burnout.

Presenter Profile
Brid shine is a registered Nurse and Midwife. She has a higher diploma in Public Health Studies and a Masters Degree in Bereavement Studies. Brid is trained in spiritual care of the dying, has certified as a Mindfulness Teacher and is a Reiki Healing practitioner. With over 25 years’ experience she has cared for clients in both the hospital and community setting at all stages of the life cycle, from birth to death. Brid’s current post since 2010 is Clinical Midwife Specialist in Bereavement and Loss at the Coombe Women & Infants University Hospital. She was a member of the HSE subgroup that launched National Standards for Bereavement Care for Ireland’s Maternity units in August 2016.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
INFERTILITY AND LOSS

Date
Friday, 7th June 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Patricia Gilbert
Gerry McCluskey

Description
Parenthood continues to be an important life goal for couples and individuals despite the significant role options now available to men and women. However for approximately 1 in 6 couples the diagnosis of infertility challenges the hopes and expectations they held for their future – it is a loss. Losses at each stage of medical investigation and treatment are cumulative and enduring. The workshop will address the range of losses encountered during and after treatment. It will also review contemporary theories of loss in the context of infertility.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• develop their knowledge of fertility investigations and treatment;
• gain insight into the emotional impact of infertility on individuals and couples;
• review contemporary theories of loss;
• develop an awareness of the life-long impact of the infertility experience.

Presenter Profile
Patricia Gilbert is a Senior Social Work Practitioner/Counsellor. As a Social Worker she was originally employed by Social Services in Family and Child Care for a number of years before specialising in the area of adoption with the voluntary agency, Adoption Routes, where she is currently a Senior Social Work Practitioner. In addition to membership of the Irish Fertility Counsellors Association, Patricia holds professional membership of the following bodies, Northern Ireland Social Care Council (NISCC), British Infertility Counselling Association, Accredited Member (BICA) and British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP). She is currently a member of BICA’s Accreditation Board. The Fertility Counselling Service NI has in recent years developed training models which Patricia is involved in presenting throughout the UK.

Gerry McCluskey originally trained as a Social Worker and since 1983 has held a variety of practitioner and management posts in Family and Child Care/Child Protection Fieldwork and Family Placement (Fostering and Adoption.) Gerry came to Fertility Counselling in 2003 through her work in Adoption. Gerry is employed by the Fertility Counselling Service NI to provide counselling to anyone who is affected by infertility. Gerry is an accredited member of BICA which she joined in 2003 and a member of the BICA Executive between 2010 – 2016. She has been a member of the Irish Fertility Counsellors’ Association since its inception in 2009. Gerry has a Masters in Social Work, an Advanced Diploma in Person Centred Counselling and is Relate Trained.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
Workshop 19

ADDITION AND LOSS

Date
Friday, 14th June 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Eoin Stephens

Description
Both the process of addiction and the process of recovery from addiction can be seen as having loss and grieving as central themes. This workshop will look at the psychological dynamics common to different addictions in relation to these inevitable themes of loss and grieving, with an emphasis on how clients may be practically helped to work through their particular loss issues.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• describe the main criteria which define an addictive attachment;
• outline the losses which occur as a result of the progression of an addiction;
• understand the necessity for the addictive attachment to be mourned in order for healthy recovery to take place;
• reflect on the possible role of earlier unresolved grief issues in the genesis of an addiction, and in recovery from the addiction.

Presenter Profile
Eoin Stephens is an Integrative Cognitive Behavioural Therapist specialising in Addictive & Problematic Behaviours. He has worked at a senior level in the fields of addiction counselling and counsellor education, as well as in private practice, for over twenty years.

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
Workshop 20

MANAGING GRIEF AT WORK

Date
Thursday, 20th June 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Breffni McGuinness

Description
Grief can affect people at any time – whether through a death, relationship breakup, diagnosis of an illness or perhaps suicide. These are difficult experiences to deal with anyway, but how do we deal with these when we are at work? Do we just get on with things or is there a better way? As a manager, how can I support and respond to an employee who is bereaved? What do I say? What do I do? This workshop will look at best practice in dealing with grief in the Workplace. It will help participants to develop skills for effectively supporting people who are bereaved, identify key elements of a Workplace Bereavement Policy and signpost resources and supports that are available.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• understand different types of losses and how these can impact on employees;
• develop skills to provide effective support to an employee who is bereaved;
• understand the key elements of a Workplace Bereavement Policy;
• identify where to find helpful resources and supports.

Presenter Profile
Breffni McGuinness is the Training Manager with The Irish Hospice Foundation (Bereavement). His special interests are in workplace bereavement, hidden losses and the use of creativity in working with people who are grieving. He has published a number of articles on bereavement and has developed resources for workplaces on bereavement policies and supporting staff who are bereaved. He is a Dramatherapist and member of the Irish Association of Creative Arts Therapists (IACAT).

Venue
The Irish Hospice Foundation, Bereavement Education & Resource Centre, Morrison Chambers, 4th Floor, 32 Nassau Street, Dublin 2, D02 YE06.

Fee
€100 (1-day workshop) includes light lunch/tea and coffee.
Workshop 21

MINDFULNESS, SELF-COMPASSION AND THE JOURNEY OF BEREAVEMENT

Date
Friday, 21st June 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Dr Susan Delaney

Description
Through a combination of didactic presentation and experiential exercises this workshop will consider how mindfulness techniques can be used in bereavement with both children and adults.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:

- be familiar with current mindfulness-based bereavement care models;
- experience how mindful practices can deepen therapeutic presence and help maintain practitioner well-being;
- be aware of simple practices to use with bereaved clients.

EXPLORING SPIRITUALITY AT END OF LIFE

Date
Thursday, 27th June 2019

Time
9.15am – 4.15pm

Presenter
Bryan Nolan

Description
The workshop will review spirituality and what it is in a contemporary Irish context. It will explore spiritual care at end of life and caring for those that are bereaved. The content is relevant to all who accompany those at end of life and their loved ones. The workshop will contain group work and discussion.

Learning Outcomes
On completion of the workshop participants will be able to:
• understand that spiritual needs emerge at end of life and in bereavement;
• understand that spirituality is more than religion;
• understand that holistic care includes spiritual care;
• be aware of and begin to address spiritual pain.

Presenter Profile
Bryan Nolan is currently working as Communications and Development Coordinator (Final Journeys) with the Irish Hospice Foundation. Bryan has worked in healthcare since 1987 in both maternity and acute settings, he was at the core of end of life care provision and developed education resources and services for staff, patients and their relatives at end of life. Bryan has a Masters in Health Care Chaplaincy from D.C.U, he trained as an addiction therapist with the N.C.E.A. In 2007 Bryan joined the Hospice Friendly Hospitals programme as a Development Coordinator for the Louth Meath Hospital group and in 2009 became the National Communications Coordinator for Final Journeys. He has introduced and facilitated the programme in both acute and community settings. Currently Bryan delivers the Final Journeys suite of programmes which includes “Dealing with Bad News” (a four hour workshop for doctors and senior staff) and “What Matters Most” (difficult conversations over time, long stay settings). He is also providing workshops for both new and advanced facilitators for Final Journeys.
