

THE CIÚIN ROOM

Our Lady of Lourdes, Drogheda

Transforming spaces, one room at a time

“People are deeply affected by their surroundings, and we want to provide a place of dignity for families of patients”

Sharon Fenelon, End-of-Life Care Coordinator

"It was just lovely that we had somewhere to go that wasn't a hospital ward or room"
– Relative

"Life is a journey and we hope that for those who have ended their journey in our hospital that it was compassionate, peaceful and with dignity. We know that our project will act as an exemplar project for future developments in end-of-life care nationally"

– Sandra Day, Chief Executive, Mercy University Hospital
